

On this door, I put blessings four.
The first is I leave my trust sure and true for who you open too but the borderline remains time after time Next, I bless those coming in may this be where the fun begins but never ends
when once more a farewell at the door Third I bless all that leave May they journey safe and return again Better for time on each side
The best of their will show inside Fourth but not last Keep storm waters and blazing fires at bay Let all that is heavy be left away
A refreshing breath just past Your home at last!
